DISCUSSION

36. We have no objections to or issues with, any of the Applications.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>8</sup>We note that Venable's entire fee request of $11,500.00 was for matters pertaining to its fee applications. However, Venable's fee requests for the periods covered by these fee applications (the Thirty-Fifth and Thirty-Sixth Interim Periods) totaled $1,619,188.71. Because Venable's fee application preparation fees of $11,500.00 comprise less than 1% of its total fee request for these periods, we have no objection to these fees.

<sup>9</sup>We inquired of Orrick concerning multiple professionals attending hearings, as well as certain travel expenses. We address these issues in more detail in the attached Appendix B.

CONCLUSION

RESPONSE EXHIBIT “1”

January 10, 2011 Hearing: During the January 10, 2011 hearing, the Court heard argument from numerous parties with respect to the Debtors’ motion seeking approval of an $84 million settlement agreement with CNA (the “Debtors’ Approval Motion”), which settlement was the subject of intense negotiations led by the FCR, for more than a year. The FCR supported the Debtors’ Approval Motion and filed a pleading in support of the Debtors’ opposition to the objections filed by the Libby Claimants and BNSF.

Roger Frankel, the lead lawyer for the FCR in this case, had primary responsibility for negotiating the key business terms of the settlement. He is intimately familiar with the issues that were addressed in the negotiation process and was present at the January 10 hearing to present argument to the Court, on behalf of the FCR, in favor of approval of the settlement.

Richard Wyron led the process for the FCR of negotiating and drafting the specific terms of the settlement agreement, and is knowledgeable about its terms. Mr. Wyron was also the principal lawyer on the FCR’s team involved in drafting the Plan and Plan Documents, which knowledge was critical to the drafting of the settlement agreement. In addition, Mr. Wyron has taken a lead role for the FCR in addressing a variety of issues raised by the Libby Claimants and BNSF, which objected to the settlement. Mr. Wyron attended the January 10 hearing to ensure that matters relating to the specific terms of the settlement agreement and its interplay with the Plan, and the objections to the settlement raised by the Libby Claimants and BNSF, were effectively presented to the Court.

Debra Felder is the senior bankruptcy associate involved in representing the FCR in all aspects of this case and the only bankruptcy associate involved in the settlement process with CNA. Ms. Felder is knowledgeable about the Plan as it relates to issues relevant to the CNA settlement from the FCR’s perspective, including the issues raised by the Libby Claimants and BNSF in their objections to the settlement. She had primary responsibility on behalf of the FCR for analyzing the objections to the settlement and preparing the FCR’s responses. Ms. Felder participated telephonically in the January 10 hearing to, among other things, provide support to Messrs. Frankel and Wyron during and after the hearing, and to follow-up as necessary with respect to, among other things, the subsequent appeals filed by the Libby Claimants and BNSF.

February 14, 2011 Hearing: On February 14, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court held a status conference on Plan confirmation and heard arguments by numerous parties in connection with discovery motions filed by Garlock Sealing Technologies LLC (“Garlock”). The status conference addressed, among other things, the Plan Proponents’ motion for clarification of the Confirmation Order, BNSF’s motion for reconsideration of the Confirmation Order, and various procedural motions, statements, and joinders filed by certain Plan opponents with respect to the time to file Bankruptcy Rule 9033 objections and the time to file notices of appeal from the Confirmation Order.

In light of their lead roles on behalf of the FCR in drafting and negotiating the key terms of the Plan and Plan Documents, and presenting arguments during the hearings on confirmation of the Plan, it was critical that Messrs. Frankel and Wyron attend the February 14 hearing to address the many issues that were likely to be raised during the status conference. Ms. Felder was the lead senior associate responsible for responding on behalf of the FCR to BNSF's motion for reconsideration and in analyzing the procedural issues associated with the many appeals that were anticipated, and subsequently filed, with respect to the Confirmation Order. Accordingly, it was important that Ms. Felder attend the status conference telephonically to support Messrs. Frankel and Wyron during and after the status conference, given the range of issues being addressed and the impact of those issues upon the overall confirmation process, and to be prepared to handle the procedural issues arising as a result of the hearing.

March 2, 2011 Hearing: On March 2, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court heard argument on BNSF's motion for reconsideration of the Confirmation Order, the pleadings filed by Montana and Canada in support thereof, the Plan Proponents' opposition to the motion, and BNSF's reply in support of the motion. Mr. Frankel attended the March 2 hearing in order to present argument to the Court from the FCR's perspective on the Plan-related issues raised by BNSF, Montana and Canada. Mr. Wyron was also present during the March 2 hearing because of his intimate familiarity with the terms of the Plan and the details surrounding the confirmation objections raised by BNSF. Ms. Felder participated telephonically because of her role as the lead senior bankruptcy associate in the Plan confirmation process and the upcoming appeal process. In addition, Ms. Felder was the lead senior associate responsible for responding (on behalf of the FCR) to the pleadings filed by BNSF, Montana and Canada. Ms. Felder also had primary responsibility for numerous substantive and procedural issues that were likely to arise as a result of the hearing and subsequent confirmation appeal process.

March 28, 2011 Hearing: On March 28, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court held a telephonic omnibus hearing on various discovery motions filed in the Debtors' case by Garlock. Mr. Frankel, in his capacity as lead counsel for the FCR, participated in the entire hearing, while Mr. Wyron and Ms. Felder participated in those portions of the hearing that were relevant to their particular areas of expertise, as described above, with respect to the issues raised by Garlock and with respect to any other issues anticipated to arise during an omnibus hearing.

We believe it was necessary for each of these lawyers to attend and participate in each of these hearings as they did, participating by telephone where appropriate. We believe the participation of the FCR's key lawyers was important, and efficient, given the range of issues being addressed and the impact of those issues upon the confirmation process, the pending appeals and the overall resolution of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases.
